FAMIQYTIES
Annual Conference

FAMILY TIES

At the heart of the family business

Family Ties annual conference is a must for family businesses and their professional advisers. Hear from family business owners who are prepared to share their insights into the challenges they face, the issues that they have had to overcome, and the drivers that make their family businesses special.

There is also the opportunity to exhibit, meet potential clients, generate publicity and new sales leads, respond to queries and develop the relationship with your existing customers all in one place.

Sponsorship of Family Ties is offered to businesses who recognise the value of this emerging market.

For our headline sponsor, the package includes branded material across the three platforms – Family Ties conference, Generation magazine and www.familybusinessplace.com in order to build a consistent brand message and expose it to the thousands of family business decision makers who read the magazine, attend the conference and visit the website. Other exciting sponsoring packages are available.

Headline sponsorship package: £10,000

Family Ties

- Branding on all conference collateral (invitations, goody bags, signage, Family Business Awards)
- Exhibition stand at conference
- 2 delegate places at conference
- Material in goody bag
- Speaker slot on an agreed topic (20mins)
- Copy of full delegate list

www.familybusinessplace.com

- Coverage in Generation following the conference.

Exhibitors: £595 + VAT

Demonstrate your expertise to the family business community by exhibiting your offering at Family Ties in front of 200 delegate including owners of some of the most prestigious family businesses. Also included are 2 delegate spaces to the conference ensuring that you always have a representative on your stand whilst the other is free to network and introduce themselves to potential clients.

Delegates: £249

If you are a professional adviser actively seeking to market yourself to a new community then Family Ties is a must have. 65% of the UK's private sector are family businesses and so the potential for professional advisers amongst this thriving community is huge. Make sure that you are there and your company doesn't miss out on this opportunity.

Award sponsorship: £2,500

A highlight of Family Ties 2010 will be the Family Business Awards presentations. The awards recognise family business contributions to a number of categories. Each award sponsor will be given a delegate place, be part of the judging panel, have the opportunity to present the award of their chosen category and receive branding on all Family Business Awards collateral. Award categories are as follows –

- Best small family business
- Best family business for innovation
- Best family business for CSR
- Best family business for community involvement
- Best overall family business
- Family Business Lifetime Achievement

Lunch sponsorship: £1,000

At the conference the speaker presentations are broken up with networking sessions in the exhibitor halls. Lunch is a crucial time for advisers and family businesses to meet and network with each other. The lunch sponsor will begin the lunchtime networking session with a brief introduction and announce the start of lunch. They will also have branded signage on the lunch tables and an exhibition stand and delegate place allowing them to demonstrate their product or service to over 200 delegates.

Drinks sponsorship: £750

As well as a wonderful lunch spread, the delegates of Family Ties will be treated to a spread of drinks, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic. The drinks sponsor will have branded signage on the drinks tables as well as an exhibition stand and delegate place to ensure that their company is represented throughout the day.

Advisers

Generation

The UK's only bespoke family business Magazine

Delivered to over 6,000 family businesses owners in the UK, Generation can provide you with a platform to reach decision makers of both small and large family businesses who are constantly reviewing their professional advisers and looking for ones who truly understand the complexities of a family business. These individuals have the highest level of purchasing power and Generation provides the ideal medium for brands to target this rapidly-growing market.

Sponsorship: £5,000

Ensure that your brand is recognised across the Family Business Place platforms by placing a banner advertisement in both Generation (twice yearly) and on www.familybusinessplace.com. Send a consistent message to readers of Generation who also use the website as an extended resource and who will recognise your involvement.

Inserts: £295

Inserts provide you with a way of communicating your own message without the restrictions of conventional advertising sizes/layouts. Your literature can then be passed on and your message transferred beyond the readership of the magazine.

Subscription: £18.95

Receive two copies per year of the UK's only bespoke family business magazine. Generation draws on the expertise of consultants in the field and features regular insights into some of the UK's most high profile businesses. Topics regularly addressed include family dynamics, succession planning, philanthropy and corporate governance. Make sure you stay up to date with the family business market and be better placed to offer your services to these dynamic firms.

If you already have a family business portfolio then for just £2/copy you can send Generation to these clients and show that you're thinking about them.

Panelist: £1,200

Generation is all about offering professional advice to those at the decision making level of family businesses. Each issue features a double page 'Panel' spread giving advisers the opportunity to demonstrate their expertise and to offer their guidance on topical subjects. As a panellist you will raise your own personal profile and your company will be seen as one which can soundly advise family businesses on issues and challenges they are facing. As well as being featured on the 'Panel' page, you will receive a profile on the Professional Advisers Directory on www.familybusinessplace.com and receive an advertisement in each of the two issues of Generation.
